Course Description

Master the GED Reasoning Through Language Arts: Conquer Reading, Grammar, and Extended Response 1-on-1 with Elite Tutors (Kru Kung / Kru Bird)

Conquer the most extensive and rigorous component of the GED examination with our high-efficiency 30-Hour Private GED RLA Intensive course. This comprehensive, private 1-on-1 live online program on jointedu.net is masterfully structured to help students successfully navigate dense reading texts, complex language conventions, and argumentative essay writing. Guided by our premier verbal specialists Kru Kung and Kru Bird, students will acquire tactical skills to pass the RLA subtest with confidence.

Key Highlights:

Full-Course Verbal Specialists: Each student receives fully interactive live mentorship from their selected tutor. While our instructors conduct their own all-inclusive courses, parents enjoy the absolute flexibility to specifically request shared-module learning or select the tutor that perfectly matches the student's learning pace.

High-Speed Reading & Analysis Shortcuts: Overcome time pressure and dense passages. Learn specialized skim-and-scan techniques to identify central arguments, interpret vocabulary in context, and analyze the authors purpose without getting bogged down by non-essential textual details.

Strategic Extended Response (Essay) Templates: Master the argumentative essay module. Our tutors provide proven writing frameworks and templates, training students to rapidly evaluate opposing passages, formulate a strong thesis statement, and utilize evidence-based reasoning to secure top-tier analytical marks.
